

Tlingit Master Artist/Carver Israel Shotridge was born and raised in Ketchikan, Alaska, a member of the Bear (Teikweidee) Clan of the Tongass (Taantakwan) Tribe. His Tlingit name is Kinstaádaál – The Bear That Is Standing Up. Shotridge creates commissioned works of art in his home studio on Vashon Island, WA.

For over 30 years Shotridge has been creating traditional and contemporary artworks for public, private and corporate Native art collections world wide including: monumental totem poles, house screens, carved panels, canoes, ceremonial objects and engraved silver and gold jewelry. More recently, Shotridge has accomplished contemporary works in sandblasted glass, depicting his exquisite formline designs.

PMIS101-S/L Abstract Formline

PMIS102-S/L Raven's Journey

PMIS103-S/L Formline Black

PMIS104-S/L Formline Blue

PMIS105-S/L 30th Anniversary

PMIS106-S/L Bear Teal

PMIS107-S/L Hummingbirds

PMIS108-S/L Killer Whale

PMIS109-S/L Raven Sun Teal

PMIS110-S/L Salmon Run

PMIS111-S/L Baby Raven & Frog

PMIS112-S/L Owl

PMIS113-S/L Hummingbird Wallpaper

PMIS114-S/L Frog

These reusable masks are not for medical use and are not intended to be a replacement for N95 or medical grade PPE, and no claims are being made as such. Masks are two layer fabric with polyester outer layer and 100% cotton inner layer, and are available in two sizes.

*For other artists check out
PacificMusicandArt.com